

The Hoven Service Club meeting was called to order by Co-chairperson Sara Colombe on Monday, December 2, 2019, after lunch at the Senior Nutrition Center.

Minutes were read by Karen Schriver, which were approved with a motion from Chuck Simon, and a second to his motion by Carole Stoeker. Chuck Simon presented the financial report. As there were no additions or corrections for either report they stood as read. Joann Rader stated a motion to approve the report, with a second to her motion from Royce Hackl.

Old business was then addressed. Mr. Jeremy Hurd gave a report on the web site, with visits remaining steady. The cost of maintenance of the website domain is going to increase in 2020. A motion to renew the website was made by Chuck Simon, with a second to his motion by Bill Rader. Motion passed. A presentation was given by the Hoven Chapter FFA members who attended the national conference in Indianapolis. Alex Seurer, Callie Hartung, Dasia Reuer, Sierra Stuwe, and Anna Stuwe gave a very entertaining and informative slide presentation highlighting their trip. They reported on daily activities and events they took part in, and shared some interesting stories. It was a pleasure to hear them speak about their trip. Kimberly Hageman also went on the trip but was unable to be at the meeting today. The turkey give away at Thanksgiving was well received; with a total of 63 turkeys given away. The ham and turkey give aways for Christmas will be December 6, 13, and 20. The membership letter that will be sent for the banquet in February 2020 was discussed and finalized. The Christmas decoration lighting contest started on December 1, and the second and third weeks' winners will be judged on December 13 and 20. The first week's winner has been selected and will be in the paper.

New business was then addressed. Snow Queen sponsorship was briefly discussed and will be addressed at the next meeting. Upcoming events to remember: Santa will visit the elementary school on December 20. The hayride at the Fire Station is on December 7. Cathedral of the Prairie Christmas Concert is on December 8.
