

The Hoven Service Club meeting was called to order by Co-chairperson Sara Colombe on February 4, 2019, after lunch at the Senior Nutrition Center.

Minutes were read by Karen Schriver, which were approved with a motion from Faith Thorne and a second to her motion from Royce Hackl.

Chuck Simon presented the financial report. As there were no additions or corrections for either report they stood as read. Don Seuer stated a motion to approve the report and a second to his motion was from Carole Stoeker.

Old business was then addressed. The Hoven website had 6570 visits during the month of January. Joni Ablor is maintaining the site. Congratulations to Senior Snow Queen Kayla Sautner for winning Miss Congeniality at the state contest. A discussion was held as to the contents of the letter being sent for HSC membership and banquet attendance. Kaup Kreationz will not be able to cater the banquet so a quote will be obtained from Dakota Haus. Kaup Kreationz will still decorate the Legion Hall. Both Sr Snow Queen Kayla Sautner and Jr Snow Queen Isabella Sautner will attend the banquet, which will be held Saturday, March 23. Suzi Vail and Faith Thorne presented a partial prototype for a welcome basket to be given to new residents of Hoven. The baskets will include a listing of local businesses with information about each and various other items that showcase Hoven. They will continue working on this project.

New business was then addressed. Carole Stoeker mentioned the Tolstory Community Fund Drive that is on Saturday, March 2, 2019, at the Community Center in Tolstory. A portion of the proceeds are used to help residents of the community. It will be an enjoyable evening with an auction. Chuck Simon announced that Hoven Community Development Inc will be reactivating as it has been inactive recently. This organization is mainly to help with business and social development in the community. A meeting will be held at Dakota Haus on Wednesday, February 20, 2019, at 11:00 a.m. Anyone who is interested in participating is invited to attend and learn more about the organization and its goals.

The next meeting of the Hoven Service Club will be held on Monday, March 4, 2019, at the Senior Nutrition Center. Sara Colombe entertained a motion to adjourn, which was given by Don Seuer, with a second to his motion from Royce Hackl. Motion carried; the meeting was adjourned.
