

Co-chair, Francis Karst, called the December 4, 2017 Hoven Service Club meeting to order after dinner at the Hoven Senior Nutrition site. Sue presented the past minutes with Royce presented the financial report. As there were no additions or corrections, Francis asked for a motion to approve both, which was given by Tom Garrity and a second to his motion from Joann Rader. All Aye, motion passed.

Old business was then addressed. Santa will visit the Hoven school and town on Friday, December 22. Royce will visit with a Sate engineer to identify the height of the Main Street utility poles which will be used to hang new banners. This will need to be done before the banners are ordered. Sue will contact a person to be the primary informant of news and activity for the Hoven Service Club, Alumni news, and city activities. This primary individual will then contact Jonie Abler to have items of interest posted on our web site.

New business was addressed. Discussion was held on hiring a caterer for our annual Service Club banquet. With a motion from Don Seurer and a second to his motion from Alice Simon, all agreed to offer the catering to Linda Kaup. All approved and motion was passed. Linda was contacted and she accepted the service for Saturday, March 10, 2018.

The Hoven School Christmas Concert will be held on Thursday, December 7, as well as the Right to Life bake sale. The Hoven Legion Christmas Party will be held on Thursday, December 14. The Pool Tournament at the Hoven Legion Hall will be held on January 5 and 6, 2018.

The St Anthony's Christmas Concert on the Prairie was, once again, very well received and successful. The demolition of the Holy Infant Hospital should begin the week of December 4.

The winners of the Holiday promotions for week one are as follows: Yard of the week- Kurt and Mel Kaiser. The Hams were won by Robert Dutt and Tammy Ohler. The four $50. winners of Hoven spendable bucks are Janine Stuwe, Clifetta Arbach, Bonnie Karst and Norma Harer. There will be two more weekly winners. We remind persons that Hoven bucks are available at the HOVEN REVIEW for purchase to be given as a Holiday gift or any gift time.

Our next meeting will be held on Monday, January 8, 2018.

Francis entertained a motion to adjourn, which was given by Faith Thorne. A second to her motion was given by Royce. All approved and meeting adjourned. Sue Petersen, secretary
